A HOME IN THE FLOUR STATE.

---

AIR: A LIFE ON THE OCEAN WAVE.

A home, in the Flour State,
In heat, at a breezy lake,
Where the well can sport and mate,
And the ills, the sick forsake.
Ailing stranger! if thou pin'st,
On a misty, sickly shore,
Come, and leave the bottled winds,
The fogs, and the ocean's roar.

CHORUS.

A home in the Flour State,
In heat, at a breezy lake,
Where the well can sport and mate,
And the ills, the sick forsake!
The ills, the ills, the ills, the sick forsake.
The ills, the ills, the ills, the sick forsake.

GREETING SONG.

---

AIR: HOME, SWEET HOME.

---

At state-fairs and carnivals,
Saint Paul we share,
E'en when merc'ry most tumbles,
There's no fun like there.
The tints from the sun warm her palace
[of ice;
And love cheers the sports in which
[the snow most flies.
'Loved town! so live! fair!
There's no fun like there!
There's no fun like there!

ICE-CURE SONG.

AIR: YANKEE DOODLE.

Prince de Carn'val left the South,

Rather sick of ennui,

Built an icy Castle here,

And cured himself of ennui.

Prince de Carn'val left the South,

Prince de Carn'val blinks! eh?

Built an icy Castle here!

Prince de Carn'val grins! eh?

SOLON SONG. (A Dream.)

---

AIR: TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP.

---

Solons hear a midnight speech,
 Dwelling, country great, on thee,
 And thy pure and noble men of long ago;
 And the speech, it touched their hearts,
 Just before some snored a wee,
 When the wakeful, roused the sleepers,
[singing so:
 Hark, hark, hark, the clubs are larking,
 Wake up, members, they are here,
 And throughout the capitol,
 They will hunt for wood-chucks sly,
 And some tax-deeds paste on Themis
[tow'ring high.

CHORUS.

Hark, hark, hark, the clubs are larking.
 Wake up, members, they are here,
 And throughout the capitol,
 They will hunt for wood-chucks sly,
 And some tax-deeds paste on Themis
[tow'ring high.

WAR SONG.

---

AIR: YANKEE DOODLE.

---

Chieftain Carn'val fights a war,
With the rebel sober,
Calls his clubs from near and far,
And laughs the en'my over.

Calls his clubs from near and far,
Chieftain Carn'val's season.

BOUNCING SONG.

AIR: WE WILL RALLY.

---

Gently rest him on the sheet, friends,
Then hoist him through the air,
Teaching the origin of thunder!

When he bounces up like lightning,
And draws the rushing air,

Find then the requisites for thunder;
A bounce, how inspiring!

Again, friends, again ;
Downward he's whining,
Upwards he laughs;
So a final stretch we'll give,

And end our jolly task,
Teaching the origin of thunder.

SNOWSHOER'S SONG.

---

AIR: AD LIBITUM.

---

What queer bosh ?

Squat near squash !

Oh, how merrily we go,

O'er the yielding virgin snow,

On the hill and in the dale,

With a lift, and then a trail,

Now a tramp, and then a hale,

Oh, how merrily we go.

What queer bosh ?

Squat near squash !
